

Equivalent notions of rank for manifolds of non-positive curvature and for mapping class groups of surfaces

Cornelia Drutu Badea

Abstract: The talk shall overview various notions of rank coming from Riemannian geometry and the known results connecting them, then explain what happens for mapping class groups and in particular why three different notions of rank are equal in that case. This is a joint result with J. Behrstock.