

On mapping class groups representations

Louis Funar

Abstract: We survey known properties of mapping class group representations arising throughout topological quantum field theories and seek for applications, like the residual finiteness of their central extensions and the explicit construction of quasi-homomorphisms extending previous work of Gambaudo and Ghys in the case of braid groups.