Fundamental groups of iterated blowups

Tadeusz Januszkiewicz

Abstract: There is the classical blowup of a point construction in algebraic geometry. In certain sense it is analogous to taking the complement of a point.

I will discuss spaces (and groups) which come from the iterated blowup construction performed on subspace arrangements, especially their relation to CAT0 cubical complexes.