1. Use google (or similar) to find real (quoted) bid/ask- prices of a European call option on some financial asset.

2. (continuation) Assume that the market follows a Black-Scholes model. Invert (numerically) the Black-Scholes formula to determined the value of $\sigma$.
   Repeat this for different values of $K$. Do you obtain the same $\sigma$?